2nd September 2018

Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Pharisees were caught up in events outside their control. St. Mark's Gospel presents two different approaches to make sense of life after the destruction of the Temple by the Romans.

On the one hand, the Pharisees attempted to establish order in the disorder by transferring the rituals of the Temple-priest into daily life.

It might be perceived, in effect as a snub to the occupying power: you may destroy what is sacred to us, but you cannot stop us from making sacred our daily actions!

Jesus' response, on the other hand, isn't to dismiss the Pharisees' practice outright, but to ask how our daily work, our routines, our relationships do justice to God's commandments to love and care for the most vulnerable.

When it comes to the inner intentions and motivations deep within our hearts, each one of us is a mixed bag.

All of us struggle with conflicting motives that are rarely completely pure. Often the most admirable things we do are done partly for show and to receive accolades from others.

And therein lies our need to remember we are in a process of conversion, on a journey of the heart.

Whether we be in the dawn or dusk of life, we pray for the grace of Christ to transform hearts of stone into hearts of truly loving people.

Parish Friends - Whitstable trip on Friday 7th September.

Please could all our day trippers be outside the church at 8.45am as the coach will be leaving at 9am prompt.

St Teresa of Calcutta

Feast day 5 September

Agnes Gonxha Bojaxhiu, the future Mother Teresa, was born on 26 August 1910, in Skopje, Macedonia, to Albanian heritage. She left home in September 1928, for the Loreto Convent in Dublin, where she received the name of Teresa, after her patroness, St Therese of Lisieux.

Agnes was sent to Calcutta in January 1929 and made her final profession as a Loreto nun in May 1937, and thereafter was called Mother Teresa. Having taught for 17 years in India, in 1946, Mother Teresa received what she termed the "call within a call," which was to give rise to the Missionaries of Charity family. The mission of her new institute was "to quench the infinite thirst of Jesus on the cross for love and souls" by "labouring at the salvation and sanctification of the poorest of the poor". Throughout the 1950s and early 1960s, her order established in India a hospice; centres for the blind, aged and disabled; and a leper colony. From the late 1960s until 1980, the Missionaries of Charity expanded their reach across the globe. In 1979, Mother Teresa was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize for her humanitarian work.

Revealed only after her death, and hidden from all eyes, was her interior life marked by an experience of a deep, painful and abiding feeling of being separated from God, even rejected by Him, along with an ever increasing longing for His love. She called this her "painful night" of her soul, which began around the time she started her work for the poor and continued to the end of her life, but it led her to an ever more profound union with God.

Despite increasing health problems, she continued to travel across the world for the profession of novices, opening of new houses, and service to the poor and disaster-stricken. By 1997, the Sisters numbered nearly 4,000 members, and were established in almost 600 foundations in 123 countries. After a summer of travelling, Mother Teresa returned to Calcutta in July 1997. On 5 September, she died at the Motherhouse and received a state funeral on 13 September 1997. She was canonised on 4 September 2016. She is the Patron of World Youth Day.

First Reading: Deuteronomy 4:1-2, 6-8

The Lord is near; his wisdom is accessible. To live by his wisdom leads to peace and life; to ignore his wisdom leads to unhappiness.

Second Reading: James 1:17-18, 21-22, 27

God's wisdom is not an artefact or an ornament: we must live by it, put it into practice.

Gospel Reading: Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23

Jesus tackles the nit-picking righteousness of those who see only the externals without going to the roots of human conduct. Externals are necessary, but they are to be a reflection of our inner conviction.

Reading for the Week:

Mon: 1 Cor 2:1-5; Ps 118:97-102; Lk 4:16-30

Tue: 1 Cor 2 :10-16 ; Ps 144 :8-14 ; Lk 4:31-37

Wed: 1 Cor 3:1-9; Ps 32:12-15.20-21; Lk 4:38-44

Thu: 1 Cor 3:18-23; Ps 23:1-6; Lk 5:1-11

Fri: 1 Cor 4:1-5; Ps 36:3-6.27-28.39-40; Lk 5:33-39

Sat: Mic 5:1-4; Ps 8:28-30; Ps 12:6-7; Mt 1:1-16.18-23

Tickets available nearer the time. All proceeds to CAFOD. Placed by the parish JPIC group.

Earth

'The entire material universe speaks of God's love, God's boundless affection for us. Soil, water, mountains: everything is, as it were, a caress of God. The history of our friendship with God is always linked to particular places which take on an intensely personal meaning; we all remember places, and revisiting those memories does us much good. For anyone who has grown up in the hills, or used to sit by the spring to drink, or played outdoors in the neighbourhood square; going back to these places is a chance to recover something of their true selves.

Laudato Si (84)

Season on Creation: From 1st September until the Feast of St. Francis on 4th October, we are invited to celebrate the Season of Creation.

Finding Silence Weekend

19th -21st October 2018

ALPHA Course

A new ALPHA Course will be starting in the Parish on Thursday, 11th October at 7.30 pm. Please join us if you would like to explore the basics of our Christian Faith, ask questions and share your point of view. Over 11 weeks, we will be looking at a different question around faith. Each session will start with a light meal. This will be followed by a video talk of around 30 minutes. The talks explore the big issues around faith and unpack the basics of Christianity. The first talk is entitled Who is Jesus? Other topics include: How can we have faith? Why and how do I pray? How does God guide us? We then share thoughts and ideas on the topic and discuss together in a small group.

You can hear from others and contribute your thoughts and ideas (if you wish) in an honest, friendly and open environment. If you are interested in joining us or would like more information, please contact Ann Hill anncarmelhill@gmail.com

/ 07977 056 637 or Sylvia White
