We are a Fairtrade parish

Fr Michael writes...

This weekend we are able to present a summary of what was heard during the listening undertaken in the parish in preparation for the forthcoming Synod of Bishops due to take place in Rome in October 2023. Thank you to everyone who participated in any way to the parish's synodal journey - either through prayer, individual replies, participating in, or organising, a group or parish meeting. The response was indeed heartening. Thank you in particular to Sara and Ian Nash who have co-ordinated the process here at Alban and Stephen and compiled the synthesis returned to the diocese. Copies of the feedback returned to the diocese have been included with this weekend's Newsletter, are available at the back of church, and will be e-mailed to all those who have given us an email contact. If you are unable to source a copy, and would like to view our response, please contact the parish office.

In initiating the preparation for the synod of Bishops one of the Holy Father's concerns was to initiate a process of listening, encouraging us to make 'listening' part and parcel of our everyday parish life. One of the ways in which we are currently doing this is through the 'Belong & Believe' series running on Mondays. It may be that you were unable to join this current series, but the hope is that we will run it again, giving as many as possible the opportunity, to share their reflection on what it is that makes for a vibrant parish community.

In today's gospel, Jesus asks Simon Peter to put out into the deep and pay out his nets for catch. It cannot have been easy for Simon Peter to hear these words. He and his colleagues, had just spent all night fishing without catching anything, they must have been fed up and exhausted, but be that as it may, they heed what Christ has to say, paying out their nets and being rewarded with a catch that surpassed all their expectations.

Imagine, for a moment, that Simon Peter ignored what Christ had to say. Imagine his saying to Jesus 'we have been out all night, we caught nothing then, and we will catch nothing now'. So often this can be our response, as individuals or as a community; past failures - something which Simon Peter alludes to - and the refusal to try again can get in the way of our hearing what the Lord is calling us to. As we crawl out of the pandemic, it seems to me that today's gospel has something very definite to say to us; challenging us to listen, to pick ourselves up, dust ourselves down and begin again.

Journeying in Faith We hope to re-launch our Journeying in Faith group for adults. This group, led by Deacon Steve, usually meets on a Thursday evening. It may be for you, a friend or relative if they or you:

- Are curious about the Christian way of life
- Want to become a Christian e.g. Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation
- Are the spouse/partner of a Catholic and want to know more about joining the Catholic community
- Want to complete your Catholic initiation e.g. to be Confirmed in your faith
- Want to share and know more about your faith as a Catholic

Please contact Deacon Steve Pickard on 863925 or e-mail stephenrpickard@gmail.com or any of our priests on 01727 853585 or e-mail stalbens@rcdow.org.uk.

Pray and Participate: We pray that across the Diocese the listening phase will continue in accordance with Pope Francis' original vision. We also pray that the Diocesan facilitators are inspired by the Holy Spirit as they collate the responses from the parishes.

Justice, Peace & the Integrity of Creation Team (JPIC) As pandemic restrictions on association and movement ease we pray that our journeys bring us closer together but we are mindful of how travel can impact the world we all depend on.

LITURGY AND SACRAMENTS

Marion Miller (RIP) The funeral Mass for Marion Miller will be held on Friday 11 February at 11am. Her son, Fr Philip Miller, will preside. Marion was a lifelong parishioner, being baptised, receiving first communion as well as being confirmed and married here at St Alban & St Stephen. Marion played an active part in so many aspects of parish life and was the parish secretary/administrator for seven years 1986 - 1993. Her remains will be received into the church on Thursday 10 February at 4.30pm. As we commend her to God, praying for the repose of her soul, as well as for Geoff and the family at this time, we give thanks to God for the ways in which we as a community have been blessed by her friendship, faith and witness.

Ministers of the Word wanted Would you like to help the congregation to hear the word of God and take part in active ministry? Then please consider reading at Mass. You do need to be able to speak clearly with reverence and conviction - training will be given to anyone interested. Perhaps you used to read and now feel able to recommence your ministry? If you could commit to reading approximately once a month, please send your details and the time of the Mass you normally attend to the parish office.

RCIA Catechists We need to build up a small group of committed adult volunteer catechists for our RCIA program to be able to successfully run our 'Journey In Faith' program. With that in mind, I would welcome you contacting me, Deacon Steve, for an initial discussion on 01727 863925 or on stephenrpickard@gmail.com. It is a ministry of love and joy that will build upon your own faith experiences. You do not need a degree or diploma, just an open heart. So please contact me and I will outline how we propose to start this 'journey' together.

Mass Attendance As is our current practice, those attending services at St Alban and St Stephen and at St John Fisher, Marshalswick are asked to wear a face mask (unless medically exempt), to sanitise their hands on entering and leaving the building, to socially distance and to receive communion on the hand. Those who do not wish to receive on the hand should come up to Holy Communion last.

Sacrament of Baptism The next baptism preparation course is to be held on Saturday 26 February at 11.30am. Please email andrewbowden@rcdow.org.uk with any enquiries.

Confirmation 2022 Fr Andrew will be in contact shortly with those who have registered for this year's course.

Marriage Preparation If you are intending to get married, please note the Diocese requires at least six months' notice with couples expected to complete a preparation course. Please email Fr Michael on michaeloboy@rcdow.org.uk

Prayers for the Sick If you would like to include someone in the prayers for the sick, please contact the presbytery. Permission from the person being prayed for, or their next of kin, must be obtained before we are able to include their name in the bulletin.

We will meet in the parish centre on Saturday 19 February from 8.15 for coffee, croissants and banter. At about 9am we will watch a video on the Nicene Creed, looking at some of the parts which refer to Jesus. This is part of a series narrated by Bishop Robert Barron, and aim to finish at 10am. This is a great opportunity to learn more about this prayer which is central to the Sunday mass and to the key parts of our catholic beliefs.

Developing Our Faith as Adults Our Parish Assembly highlighted the need to promote and facilitate ongoing faith formation for adults beyond sacramental preparation. The Adult Faith Formation group will meet for 1.5 hours each month either via Zoom or by face to face meeting in the Parish Centre. If you are interested in planning adult faith formation in our parish, please email the parish office.

St Josephine Bakhita (1869-1947) – 8 February Josephine Bakhita was born in South Darfur (Sudan). Kidnapped and sold in slave markets of Africa, she was rescued by an Italian family, became a Christian and joined the Canossian Daughters of Charity, living the rest of her life at Schio, a small village near Vicenza. She is the patron saint of Sudan and of victims of human trafficking. For many years our parish supported the Bakhita Village (MSC) Project in South Africa which opened in 2002 to care for children orphaned due to AIDS. For the next 15 years more than 150 girls called it home. The home has now closed and transitioned to the Bakhita Outreach Program supporting the most vulnerable children in a home setting with a guardian.
