The Sacred Triduum

Maundy Thursday

Jesus celebrated the first Mass saying 'this is my body' and 'this is my blood' and asked us to do the same 'in memory of me'. He washed the feet of his disciples commanding all who would follow him to serve their neighbour. 'I have set you an example', he says, 'that you should do as I have done for you' (John 13:15).

Good Friday

'God so loved the world that he sent his only Son so that all who believe in him should not perish but have eternal life' (John 3:16). We remember Christ's death on the cross, reverencing the cross on which Christ showed the depth of His love for us.

Holy Saturday

Jesus rose from the dead, victorious over sin and death. This evening we celebrate the light of Christ coming into the world. At the empty tomb the angel said to the women 'Do not be afraid, He is not here; He has risen' (Matthew 28:5).
