

2nd Sunday of Advent 2022 Gospel and Reflection

Gospel - Matthew 3:1-12

Prepare the way for Jesus

In those days, John the Baptist came to the Judean wilderness and began preaching. His message was, "Repent of your sins and turn to God, for the Kingdom of Heaven is near." The prophet Isaiah was speaking about John when he said,

"His is a voice shouting in the wilderness, 'Prepare the way for the Lord's coming! Clear the road for him!' "

John's clothes were woven from coarse camel hair, and he wore a leather belt around his waist. For food he ate locusts and wild honey. People from Jerusalem and from all of Judea and all over the Jordan Valley went out to see and hear John. And when they confessed their sins, he baptized them in the Jordan River.

But when he saw many Pharisees and Sadducees coming to watch him baptize, he denounced them. "you brood of snakes!" he exclaimed. "Who warned you to feel God's coming wrath? Prove by the way you live that you have repented of your sins and turned to God. Don't just say to each other, 'We're safe, for we are descendants of Abraham.' That means nothing, for I tell you, God's judgement is poised, ready to sever the roots of the trees. Yes, every tree that does not produce good fruit will be chopped down and thrown into the fire.

"I baptize with water those who repent of their sins and turn to God. But someone is coming soon who is greater than I am – so much greater that I'm not worthy even to be his slave and carry his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire. He is ready to separate the chaff from the wheat with his winnowing fork. Then he will clean up the threshing area, gathering the wheat into his barn but burning the chaff with never-ending fire."

Discussion Points

1. Who am I prepared to listen to?
2. Who do I listen to?
3. Where/who are the prophetic voices today?
4. Where did I meet Christ today?
5. How can I live more simply mindful that the food I eat is a gift to be enjoyed with care?
6. What does baptism and the Holy Spirit mean to me?

Prayer

God our Father, thank you for the many people who share their wisdom and set a good example to others, especially to the young.
