We are a Fairtrade parish

Fr Michael writes... Proximity, closeness, contact is no guarantee of absolute knowledge. It is possible to know someone for years, but still not know them fully, to be amazed by what you didn't know, notice or take on board. And what is true for us is true for John. It's difficult to believe that the affinity and warmth spoken of in Mary's haste to see her cousin Elizabeth, did not manifest itself in other ways; in these cousins, Jesus and John, knowing or knowing of one another in some way, but still, as the Gospel makes clear, there is a vital sense in which John did not know his cousin Jesus.

Being known, understood and recognised for who we are is, I suspect, one of the most precious of gifts. Yet our being known, our being understood, is something for which you and I must take responsibility; it's not enough to stand idly by, lamenting the fact that we are not known or understood if we do not desire or seek to be known and understood.

God speaks of himself through his creation, in the love he manifests for his chosen people Israel, and ultimately in the person of Jesus Christ and the outpouring of his Holy Spirit. In this sense, God is not a mystery too far, but a God who is happy to be known, encountered. 'I waited, I waited for the Lord' says the psalmist 'and he stooped down to me ... he put a new song into my mouth'.

The suggested diocesan donation, which contributes to the stipends of the priests of our parish, is £10 per mass.

Prayers for the Sick If you would like to include someone in the prayers for the sick, please contact the parish office. Donating to our Parish Please consider making your offertory contribution by standing order and gift aiding your donations, if you do not already do so.
